We felt very much reliaved that the brown eyed girl got her stocking full of good things.

Many friends have come to our relief at the suggestion of Santa Claus, and as a consequence, we feel better able to go home at the ghostly hour of midnight and do our share of hollors.

Take, for instance, Ben Metzger, He promises to send up the necessary box of cigars, and Constine says he will see that we, do not want for a dish to eat out of, and Smith says we shall have a Morris chair to sit upon as we single our Jofferson olgar.

With all these things, we must feel grateful to Henry Lerch for that woiner wurst he so kindly donated towards the festive occasion.

Christmas wouldn't be good without a mid claus March 24th.

At their last meeting the Sallsbury Board of Aldermen voted to increase the license of retail saloon keepers from $500 to $600 per annum. The raise seems to meet with general approval, and it is expected that the new year will bring an increased number of saloons, Messrs, J. C. Summers & Co., wholesale liquor dealers of Ashoville, having applied for license to do business in Salisbury.
